

Hello Everyone,

Here is what you missed if you were not there last night.

Brad and Marcus talked about PLANET SCD (Student Career Days) March 22-25th in Kansas, at Kansas State University. If you signed up for should have received an email from him today and need to reply back by Nov. 10th. You still have a chance to sign up at next week's meeting or you can meet with Brad in his office at Plant and Soil Sciences (room A212).

Up coming events:

- Broomball against Turfgrass on Nov. 10th. Meet at Munn at 10:15pm
- Community service Greening of Detroit (planting trees). We need to be there at 8:45am
- Ag Olympics at the Pavilion meet there at 6:15pm

Sarah spoke about an upcoming trade show Great Lakes Fruit, Vegetable, and Farm market expo in Grand Rapids Dec. 6th-8th. She also said that quarter zips cost $22

Scholarships from PLANET and Garden writers association foundation (See attached flyer) Link:

<http://www.hrt.msu.edu/scholarships/>

There are many scholarships on this website that I am sure Marcus has told a lot of you about. The PLANET scholarship is also there.

We also voted on our Spring Show and Plant sale theme and here it is!! Secret Garden/4 season/Garden Getaway. We will be narrowing it down and coming up with a name later but this is the first year that we have a theme picked out this far in advance!! :) YAY!